FREE SOUTH AFRICA MOVEMENT DEFENSE COMMITTEE

343 S. Dearborn Room 919 (312) 922-3915 Chicago, IL 60604

DENNIS BRUTUS JAN CAREW JOY CAREW EARL DURHAM
CAROLINE HUDSON STERLING PLUMPP NANCY SINGHAM

Since December, 18 people have been arrested in Chicago for protesting against the racist South African government. They are:

Cong. Gus Savage - 2nd Congressional District
Sen. Richard Newhouse - 13th Senatorial District of Illinois
Mrs. Jackie Jackson - PUSH and the Rainbow
Mrs. Addie Wyatt - retired V.P. of Amalgamated Meat Cutters
Steve Cullen - International V.P. of AFSCME
Ald. Allan Streeter - 17th Ward
Heather Booth - National co-chair of Citizen Action
Paul Booth - International Area Director of AFSCME
Rev. Ralph Henley - Discipleship Missionary Baptist Church
Larry Hildis - Northwestern University student
Eric Hudson - Chicago Public highschool student
Robert Lucas - Director of Kenwood Oakland Community Organization
Edward Palmer - President of the Black Press Institute
Jane Ramsey - Director of the Jewish Urban Affairs Council
Rev. Orlando Redakopp - Church of the Brethren
Mark Rogovin - Director of the Chicago Peace Museum
Thomas Savage - 2nd Congressional District office
Rev. Ron Shupp - Clergy and Laity Concerned

On May 13, 1985, Streeter, Cullen, Palmer, Lucas, Ramsey, T. Savage, Henley, Redakopp and H. Booth will go on trial at the 2600 S. California court, accused of trespassing at the South African Consulate. A number of expert witnesses will testify on their behalf, including Harry Belafonte, Randall Robinson, Cong. Charles Hayes, Sen. Paul Simon, Dennis Brutus, Marge Benton and Prexy Nesbitt.

WE MUST DEFEND THE RIGHT OF PEOPLE OF CONSCIENCE TO OPPOSE APARTHEID, THE MOST RACIST SYSTEM SINCE NAZISM.

The Free South Africa Movement needs your help to pay legal expenses for the nine defendants. Join us for an evening of music and food in honor of the 18 people who stood up for freedom and justice in South Africa:
