Biography - Archie Lieberman

Archie Lieberman was born in Chicago, Illinois on July 17, 1926 and died in Galena, Illinois on March 13, 2008. He was educated at the Chicago Institute of Design (now Illinois Institute of Technology) where he studied with Alexander Archipenko, Buckminster Fuller, Laszlo Moholy-Nagy, and Aaron Siskind, and he attended the Art Institute of Chicago. Lieberman worked as a photographer for magazines, advertising, and corporations working extensively for Look magazine between 1952 and 1972 and his photographs have also appeared in such magazines as Life, Time, Fortune, Collier's, Holiday, London Illustrated, and Paris-Match. In the 1960s, Lieberman taught Photography classes at Columbia College Chicago.

Lieberman was the author or photographer of more than twenty books. His photographs have been exhibited in museums and galleries throughout the United States and Canada. He won numerous prizes and awards, including five from the University of Missouri School of Journalism, the Friends of Literature Award (1974, for Farm Boy), the Society of Professional Journalists' Peter Lisagor Award (1980 for "Final Verdict", the Chicago Book Clinic Award and selection among the Best Fifty Books of 1965 (for The Israelis), and numerous awards from photographic, typographic, and graphic design professional associations.

About the Collection

The Archie Lieberman Collection dates from 1950 to 2003 in 243.55 cubic feet (252 boxes). The Collection contains the work of Archie Lieberman, outlining his professional work for many decades as a photographer, author, and photojournalist. This collection includes job notebooks, photographic negatives, slides, prints, and contact proofs. Personal and business correspondence, academic activities, journals, and personal writings. The remainder of the collection contains major project materials, such as his Farm Boy work, and categories of materials such as correspondence, academic work, and exhibit information.

Collection Arrangement

This collection has been arranged into seven series:

- Series 1: Farm Boy/Neighbors, 1954-1994
- Series 2: Project Work, 1950s-2000s
- Series 3: Commercial Work, 1951-1971
- Series 4: Prints/Contacts, 1965-2002
- Series 5: Printed Materials, 1966-1996
- Series 6: Correspondence & Academic Work, 1960-2003
- Series 7: Negatives, 1950s-2000s

The majority of the collection is arranged around the job numbers assigned by Lieberman to each photographic session. These job numbers, recorded in annual journals, were meticulously kept by Lieberman and the negatives, proof sheets, photographs, and slides are generally arranged by this number. A small amount of material from his time at Black Star predated his numeric system and this material is arranged alphabetically by name or chronologically by date.

Accessible Online Material from the Archie Lieberman Collection

While the processed portions of this collection are available for research in person, a portion of it have been digitized and made available online including:

Job Book

Archie Lieberman's Photography Job Book was created by College Archives & Special Collections staff by compiling all of Lieberman's job books into one document. The entire Lieberman Job Index shows job and client information for negatives held within the Collection. This Index provides access to Lieberman's jobs by Job Number, Job Date, Client, and the format(s) of the film.

Terms of Access

The processed portions of the Archie Lieberman collection are available to all users. Any unprocessed items in the collection that are not in this current inventory will become available for all users once the Archivist has updated the collection's description.

Terms of Use

Materials are the property of Columbia College Chicago. Intellectual property rights of work belong to the original creators. Materials within the collection that are published and copyrighted maintain their copyright protections and must be used according to United States Copyright Law. Use of this collection and its materials is understood to be primarily for research, teaching, and creative study; additional uses, such as publication, exhibition, or other appropriate purposes may be considered upon consultation with the Archivist.

Appraisal

The collection consists of 28 large print boxes, 132 standard size boxes, 6 long boxes, 4 large film boxes, 1 small film box, 1 film canister, 1 small square box, and 2 plastic storage containers. There are also 15 standard size boxes that are badly mold and water damaged, that had to be disposed. There are also several boxes of negative files, and numerous framed prints; these have not yet been processed so are not part of this document.

Overall the condition of the material is fair, with some dirt or dust in most boxes, and a musty smell. The slides are primarily stored in small boxes (plastic and cardboard) or plastic sleeves (rigid or soft), while the negatives are mostly in glassine or other various kinds of envelopes.

Prints and contact sheets are mostly black and white and stored in envelopes or boxes. Some prints are much larger and mounted. It appears that many of the envelopes/folders/sheets holding negatives or slides/prints have the job number attached. Some of the printed material has been bent or spindled due to storage conditions.

The non-photographic materials are in various states. They are kept in large envelopes or standard sized file folders, sometimes labeled and identified, often not. This material is of widely varying types, from work related correspondence and contracts, to garage receipts and birthday cards. There are many, many magazines which may or may not include work by AL, as well as many sections of newspapers, clippings, and photocopied articles. In general the contents of the box does not adhere strictly to the subject listed on the outside, and there appears to be a fair amount of extraneous material not related to Lieberman's life and work.

Initial Acquisition

Gift, 2008-07-18

Materials were acquired from three sources: the family home and a storage unit both located in Illinois and from another repository in Iowa that deaccessioned the collection.

Series 1: Farm Boy/Neighbors, 1954-1994

Date [inclusive]: 1954-1994

Arrangement

The first nine boxes in this series were originally organized by staff at another repository about 2006- 2007. In early 2009 the contents were re-housed in clean, acid-free boxes and condensed to reduce the total number of containers used. All contents remain in their original order.

Series 3: Commercial Work, 1951-1971
 Date [inclusive]: 1951-1971

Sub-Series 3.1: Black Star

General

Most of the material in this sub-series has suffered environmental damages and is in poor condition. There is extensive mold and mildew throughout, and tempature and humidity changes have warped or spindled most of the contact sheets.

The materials were removed from their original envelopes and the subject information transcribed to the new folders. For the most part there are no dates or job numbers used on this material and the subject as written on the envelope does not always match that used in the job books. By and large this material is not processed beyond this level.

Sub-Series 3.3: Collier's

General

Most of the material in this sub-series has suffered environmental damages and is in poor condition. There is extensive mold and mildew throughout, and tempature and humidity changes have warped or spindled most of the contact sheets.

Title/Description	Instances
-------------------	-----------

Box 1: Slides

Scope and Contents

Contents in very poor condition with lots of powdery mold in evidence. Two envelopes/folders containing cardboard slide holders; many of the individual slides have come loose because of disintegration of the holders; slides have mold and mildew on them. Four sealed plastic bags holding numerous slide boxes or smaller envelopes; lots of mold and mildew in evidence on the surfaces.

Series 4: Prints/Contacts, 1965-2002

Date [inclusive]: 1965-2002

Arrangement

The prints in the collection are arranged by "job numbers" which were assigned by Archie Lieberman, arranged chronologically. Not all prints in the collection have a job number currently associated with them. Those prints which have been assigned to specific job numbers are housed with prints of the same (or most similar) sizes.

Sub-Series 4.3: Job Books, 1951-2004

Date [inclusive]: 1951-2004

Scope and Contents

A collection of ledger-books containing a handwritten record of Archie Lieberman's photographic work. These books are the source of the Job Numbers used to organize the negatives, proof sheets, and prints in the collection.

The information is hand-written (although there are some added pages of typescripts occasionally stapled or taped inside) and has been transcribed as accurately as possible. Most of the books begin and end with written religious invocations or dedications by Archie Lieberman
