Grace Hyde Beard.

Sunnyside,
Washburn Park,
Minneapolis.

My dear Mrs. Titch.

How much Grace & I wish we might be at dear old Phi Sigma on April 8th.

The were in Chicago
last fall & that with my three days visit
last week must suffice
we think, for the present.

Carlos P. Sawyer is the man you want to Follow up. He is, I suppose, near at hand. He knows all about the old days and no one, better than he can recite of those old days of yore. I have known nothing of Mabbs or Jeusion for twenty years. Phi Sigma was my high school! Don't you remember as a little girl, The Beard, Mrs. Stone 253 W. Madison St.

In the corner of that stone on a bench, two chairs a stool & a keg (I think there was a keg - empty keg) the old Phi Sigma started!

The started our Stone in '77 and next spring ~~the~~ started.
Brother Gerald married our dear friend Mary Reyes of this city about twelve years ago. He now has quite a ladies' Seminary of his own with a wife and three daughters.
Frank E. Whitman is in Boston 501 Board of Trade Bldg.
Please close a line for old Phi Sigma and if it will work in to your brilliant program, why read it that night. If Sean helps you further, command me -
Sincerely yours H. Livingston Beard.

Feb'y 20th 1903.

Dear Old Phi Sigma.

I hear you are going to get yourself together and celebrate your first Quarter Century!

I wish I were with you April 18th 1903.

I love you, old Phi Sigma - love you for the dear boys & girls whom you used to encircle.

I love you for the Knowledge you gave when we sought it and the pleasure of the seeking.

As I think often my thoughts take great leaps and I find part of you in Los Angeles - and part of you amid the Green Mountains.

And, too, Old Phi Sigma, I find part of you in my own dear "Hammie side" and I love you most of all, than you gave me the girl with dark hair and blue eyes up there at Jennie Allen's, you know. ^{Ever yours then} ^{dear old Phi Sigma}
