Walkers must stay on sidewalk.

ASSIGNMENTS:

- Two people to stay at the very front.
- Two people to bring up the rear (leave Hayes Center 10:30 a.m.)
- Four people to cover the rest stops and nearby streets, to be relayed in pairs between the four stops, two each pair.
- All other marshalls should accompany the walk, spacing themselves out and remaining attentive to needs that arise and making all the corners.

All marshalls should:

- Know the route and help walkers to make all the corners and try to stay together, at least with those they came with.
Route: N on E side of Wabash; E on S side of 47th; N on W sidewalk of King Drive; E on N side of Oakwood; SE in the middle of Drexel Blvd; E on N side of 45th; jog north at Woodlawn around corner to Lake Park and S on W side of Lake Park to 46th; W on N side of 46th* to Woodlawn; S on E side of Woodlawn to 51st (Hyde Park Blvd); W on N side of 51st 1 block to Ellis; N on E side of Ellis to 50th; W on N side of 50th* to Drexel; S on E side of Drexel to 51st; W on S side of 51st to Wabash; N on E side of Wabash to Hayes Center.
- Encourage walkers. People who tire out should get to the closest rest stop where they can get a ride back to Hayes Center with Dale or Lucille.
- Pass out fliers/newsletters to interested persons enroute (solicit help).
- Deal with problems should they arise.

Rest stop marshalls should:

- help serve water and direct walkers to bathrooms; greet & encourage walkers; represent walkathon to personnel at rest stops; one can patrol the streets near rest stop; stay with tired walkers til patrol car comes and/or stay at rest stop til last walker passes (patrol can they relay ahead).
