DRAGONS

A blue ink sketch on a white background. At the top center, the text "The Power Begins The Drang" is written in a stylized, handwritten font. Below the text, there are two main figures. On the left, a large, blocky, somewhat abstract figure is depicted in a dynamic, almost dancing pose. It has a large head with a prominent nose and a small, curved mouth. Its body is composed of thick, rectangular shapes. To its right, a smaller, more detailed figure is shown in a similar dynamic pose, appearing to be in motion. This figure has a more human-like form with a head, torso, and limbs. In the bottom right corner, there is a small, simple sketch of a figure lying on the ground. The overall style is expressive and sketchy, with visible ink lines and some shading.
