A hand-drawn sketch on lined paper. In the center, a person wearing a headscarf is inside a cage-like structure made of vertical bars. They are reaching out with their right arm towards the right. To the left of the cage, there is a figure that looks like a bird or a person with long, flowing hair, with the word 'LAW' written on its side. To the right of the cage, there is another figure, possibly a person, with the word 'PENGUNJUNG' written on its side. The drawing is done in a simple, expressive style with black ink.
