Phi Sigma

Forty-Fifth Year
1922-1923

FOREWORD

The thinking world is asking for the facts. It is rebuilding its judgments. Phi Sigma will devote this year to a study of the sources and development of civilization. The papers will be presented by men who have conscientiously sought to help us.

In response to some requests a suggestive list of books is printed in this program. The list is not offered as either complete or best but as partial and suggestive.
