The Star Spangled Banner

By Francis Scott Key

Oh, say can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
O say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

On the shore, dimly seen through the mists of the deep,
Where the foe's haughty host in dread silence reposes,
What is that which the breeze, o'er the towering steep,
As it fitfully blows, now conceals, now discloses?
Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam,
In full glory reflected now shines on the stream:
'Tis the star-spangled banner! O long may it wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

And where is that band who so vauntingly swore
That the havoc of war and the battle's confusion
A home and a country should leave us no more?
Their blood has wiped out their foul footsteps' pollution.
No refuge could save the hireling and slave
From the terror of flight, or the gloom of the grave:
And the star-spangled banner in triumph doth wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

Oh! thus be it ever, when freemen shall stand
Between their loved homes and the war's desolation!
Blest with victory and peace, may the heaven-rescued land
Praise the Power that hath made and preserved us a nation.
Then conquer we must, for our cause it is just,
And this be our motto: "In God is our trust."
And the star-spangled banner forever shall wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!

Lift Every Voice and Sing

By James Weldon Johnson

Lift every voice and sing, till earth and Heaven ring,
Ring with the harmonies of liberty;
Let our rejoicing rise, high as the listening skies,
Let it resound loud as the rolling sea.
Sing a song full of the faith that the dark past has taught us,
Sing a song full of the hope that the present has brought us;
Facing the rising sun of our new day begun,
Let us march on till victory is won.

Stony the road we trod, bitter the chastening rod,
Felt in the days when hope unborn had died;
Yet with a steady beat, have not our weary feet,
Come to the place for which our fathers sighed?
We have come over a way that with tears has been watered,
We have come, treading our path through the blood of the slaughtered;
Out from the gloomy past, till now we stand at last
Where the white gleam of our bright star is cast.

God of our weary years, God of our silent tears,
Thou Who hast brought us thus far on the way;
Thou Who hast by Thy might, led us into the light,
Keep us forever in the path, we pray.
Lest our feet stray from the places, our God, where we met Thee.
Lest our hearts, drunk with the wine of the world, we forget Thee.
Shadowed beneath Thy hand, may we forever stand,
True to our God, true to our native land.

DISTINGUISHED HONORS

A Celebration of Artists in Human Service

Doctorates to be Conferred at Commencement Exercises, May 14, 2006

Each year, Columbia College Chicago honors outstanding individuals in the arts, education, politics, and public information. These individuals have engaged their great talents in important human service, and their life work and example embody the ideals and spirit of the College.

BUDDY GUY

Our Nation's Leading Blues Artist

World renowned blues artist Buddy Guy is a pioneer of Chicago's legendary West Side sound and a living link to our city's halcyon days of electric blues.

He was seven years old when he fashioned his first makeshift "guitar"—a two-string contraption attached to a piece of wood and secured with his mother's hairpins. It would be nearly another decade before Mr. Guy would own an actual guitar—a Harmony acoustic that now proudly sits on display at the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame in Cleveland.

In 1957 he moved from Louisiana to Chicago, and within months he had taken up residency in Chicago's fabled 708 Club. By the early 1960s, Mr. Guy was a first-call session man at Chess Records. As a session man, he backed the likes of Waters, Howlin' Wolf, Little Walter, and Sonny Boy Williamson. By the decade's end, Mr. Guy was staking out new creative territory, cutting albums like 1967's I Left My Blues in San Francisco, his last effort for Chess, and 1968's A Man and the Blues for Vanguard. In the process, Mr. Guy, the purveyor of a stinging, attacking electric guitar style and wild, impassioned vocals, was capturing the minds of a growing number of rock musicians. His first three albums for Silvertone—the 1991 comeback smash Damn Right, I've Got the Blues (reissued in 2005), 1993's Feels Like Rain and 1994's Slippin' In—all earned Grammy Awards.

Internationally acclaimed, five-time Grammy winner and inductee of the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame, Mr. Guy has firmly cemented a blues legacy that places him squarely in the company of his heroes who came before.

LINDA JOHNSON RICE

Publisher, Journalist, and Civic Leader

Linda Johnson Rice is President and Chief Executive Officer of Johnson Publishing Company, Inc., publisher of EBONY and JET magazines, and the number one African-American publishing company in the world. Ms. Rice oversees the corporation's domestic and international business operations, which include Fashion Fair Cosmetics, the Johnson Publishing Company Book Division, and EBONY Fashion Fair.

Prior to becoming CEO in 2002, she served as President and Chief Operating Officer, Vice President and Special Assistant to the Publisher, Vice President and fashion coordinator for EBONY magazine, and fashion coordinator for EBONY Fashion Fair. She has received the Robie Award For Achievement in Industry from the Jackie Robinson Foundation, the Trumpet Award from Turner Broadcasting, the Alumni Merit Award from the University of Southern California, the Alumni of the Year Award from Kellogg Graduate School of Management's Black Management Association of Northwestern University, and the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund, Inc. Equal Justice Award.

Ms. Rice has addressed numerous business, civic, professional, community and cultural groups, as well as dignitaries from the U.S. and foreign countries. She participated in President Clinton's Economic Summit, and served as a member of the United States Presidential Delegation to the Inauguration of Nelson Mandela, President of South Africa. Ms. Rice serves on the Board of Directors of Bausch & Lomb, Inc., Kimberly-Clark Corp., MoneyGram International, Inc., and Omnicom Group, Inc. She is a member of the Magazine Publishers Association, the Advisory Council of the Smithsonian Institution National Museum of African American History and Culture, the Board of Trustees of the Art Institute of Chicago, the Woman's Board of the Art Institute of Chicago, the Board of Directors of the United Negro College Fund, University of Southern California, and Northwestern Memorial Corporation. She holds membership with several organizations including the National Association of Black Journalists and the Young Presidents Organization.

Ms. Rice holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Journalism from the University of Southern California, and a Master of Business Administration degree from Northwestern University's J.L. Kellogg Graduate School of Management.

BERNARD SAHLINS

Director, Author, Producer, and Founder of The Second City

Director, author, and producer Bernard Sahlins is the founder of The Second City, the world renowned improvisational comedy troupe, for which he also served as longtime director and producer.

Mr. Sahlins is the co-creator and longtime producer of SCTV, the legendary Canadian sketch comedy TV show. He also co-founded the International Theatre Festival of Chicago and the Lithuanian International Theater Festival, and has directed and/or produced various shows in Chicago, New York, Los Angeles, London, and Toronto.

Mr. Sahlins' directing credits include his own adaptation of The Mysteries for the Court Theatre, The Wasteland for the Humanities Festival & the Arts Club, The Cure at Troy for Steppenwolf Theater, The Shoemakers Holiday, The Knight of the Burning Pestle, and The Burial at Thebes for the Chicago Shakespeare Theater, among myriad other productions. He has written and directed several works, including See the Light for the Museum of Science & Industry, The History of Comedy, Part 2 for the University of Chicago and A Woman for All Seasons, Jane Addams, and Dylan Thomas for the Illinois Humanities Festival. He has been a consultant for the Lithuanian Ministry of Culture and the Lithuanian National Theatre, the Walt Disney Company, the Market Theatre: Johannesburg, the Museum Campus, USIS: Romania, Lithuania, the University of Chicago arts programs, and the British Council. He is also the author of Days and Nights at the Second City: A Memoir, with Notes on Staging Review Theatre.

Mr. Sahlins is the esteemed recipient of the Sergel prize for playwriting, the University of Chicago Professional Achievement Award, the Chicago Drama League's Professional Achievement Award, Joseph Jefferson Awards for directing and professional achievement, the Illinois Arts Alliance "Legend" award, and the Improv Festival Achievement Award. He serves on the Advisory Board for Chicago's Commissioner for Cultural Affairs, the Board of Directors for the Arts Club of Chicago, and the Board of Directors for the DePaul School of Drama.

ODE TO HONEY

for my students

By Danielle Aquiline

Maria Ramirez looks at me and says my eyes are like honey. It is my first day teaching at Pasteur Elementary and several of my students can only speak Spanish. I ask them to write odes about their favorite things to eat.

We speak belly and taste bud instead of syllables and soon I am hungry.
Maria writes Ode to White Rice and then says she doesn't know anything but how to put the pieces in her mouth.

I think of the bland swell of rice
in the body, the raking of wet,
the spill—the strange spit of pearl
on the tongue.

Rice comes from water, it is white like the clouds in the sky, white like my sweater, she says.

And she's right. I find it necessary to tell her that rice has a history, that rice sings. She sings too, sometimes through rice, sometimes alone.

Sometimes scribbling: Rice is like snow falling from the sky.

Ode to Honey is the winner of the 2006 Allen & Lynn Turner Commencement Poetry Competition
