THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER

By Francis Scott Key

Oh, say can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
O say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

On the shore, dimly seen through the mists of the deep,
Where the foe's haughty host in dread silence reposes,
What is that which the breeze, o'er the towering steep,
As it fitfully blows, now conceals, now discloses?
Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam,
In full glory reflected now shines on the stream:
'Tis the star-spangled banner! O long may it wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

And where is that band who so vauntingly swore
That the havoc of war and the battle's confusion
A home and a country should leave us no more?
Their blood has wiped out their foul footsteps' pollution.
No refuge could save the hireling and slave
From the terror of flight, or the gloom of the grave:
And the star-spangled banner in triumph doth wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

Oh! thus be it ever, when freemen shall stand
Between their loved homes and the war's desolation!
Blest with victory and peace, may the heaven-rescued land
Praise the Power that hath made and preserved us a nation.
Then conquer we must, for our cause it is just,
And this be our motto: "In God is our trust."
And the star-spangled banner forever shall wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!

LIFT EVERY VOICE AND SING

By James Weldon Johnson

Lift every voice and sing, till earth and Heaven ring,
Ring with the harmonies of liberty;
Let our rejoicing rise, high as the listening skies,
Let it resound loud as the rolling sea.
Sing a song full of the faith that the dark past has taught us,
Sing a song full of the hope that the present has brought us;
Facing the rising sun of our new day begun,
Let us march on till victory is won.

Stony the road we trod, bitter the chastening rod,
Felt in the days when hope unborn had died;
Yet with a steady beat, have not our weary feet,
Come to the place for which our fathers sighed?
We have come over a way that with tears has been watered,
We have come, treading our path through the blood of the slaughtered;
Out from the gloomy past, till now we stand at last
Where the white gleam of our bright star is cast.

God of our weary years, God of our silent tears,
Thou Who hast brought us thus far on the way;
Thou Who hast by Thy might, led us into the light,
Keep us forever in the path, we pray.
Lest our feet stray from the places, our God, where we met Thee.
Lest our hearts, drunk with the wine of the world, we forget Thee.
Shadowed beneath Thy hand, may we forever stand,
True to our God, true to our native land.

Allen and Lynn Turner Commencement Poetry Competition

I WILL SING

I appreciate, and sing, when there is occasion,
such as a birth, a miracle, an electrical storm,
a storm to end electricity, I will sing to that,
and anything else that takes away
what we were not born with or grew into,
such as plastic, but not fingertips.

I would like to lose everything I was born with,
everything I grew into, or at least hide it,
so that people who love me love me for what I've taken,
what I have, and when a storm comes and takes that too away, for no reason at all. I would love to be preferred by people the way people prefer, without thinking, being to nothing at all.

—Thomas Mowe, Creative Writing—Poetry MFA '09

KUNIHICO UKIFUNE

Businessman and Educator

Dr. Kunihiro Ukifune is the Chairman and CEO of the Jikei Group of Colleges in Japan, which he founded in Osaka in 1976. The group has since grown to 51 colleges located throughout Japan, including campuses in Hokkaido, Miyagi, Tokyo, Saitama, Nagoya, Osaka, and Fukuoka. The colleges offer programs across many fields, including performing arts, visual arts, social welfare, medical technology, culinary arts, and many others. Dr. Ukifune has contributed to international education and understanding by establishing and creating partnerships with several cross cultural education programs for American and Japanese students, such as the Jikei Group Study Abroad program; The University of California, Irvine Summer Session program; and the summer semester in Japan scholarship program with the University of West Florida, which began in 1991. In recognition of his work, Dr. Ukifune was awarded an Honorary Doctorate in International Education from the University of West Florida in 1995. He has served on several boards and administrative bodies, including the Board of Directors of The Japan Lighthouse Foundation, The Medical Insurance Administrators Foundation, and Community Colleges for International Education, Inc. In the U.S. Dr. Ukifune has also served as chairman of The National Medical Secretary Education Council and The Seizo Aonogahara Social Welfare Association, as well as serving as President of the Rotary Club in Japan. Dr. Ukifune holds a Bachelor's Degree in Law from Kwansai University.

ALISON KNOWLES

Artist

Alison Knowles is a world-renowned artist and founding member of Fluxus. With Fluxus, she traveled and performed throughout Europe, Asia, and the United States. By invitation of George Maciunas, she also made the Bean Rolls, a canned book that appeared in the Whitney Museum exhibition The American Century (2000). Knowles composed the Notations book of experimental composition with John Cage and made Coeurs Volants with Marcel Duchamp, both works published by Something Else Press. Her work The House of Dust, which was programmed with the help of composer Jim Tenney, was recognized as the first computer poem on record and won her a Guggenheim Fellowship. Knowles brought this work to CalArts where she taught from 1970-1972. She has served as guest Professor in Kassel, Germany and has exhibited her work around the world with exhibitions featured at Museum of Contemporary Art in Los Angeles, the Drawing Center in New York, and the Tate Modern in London, among others. This year, from January through March, Knowles was part of The 3rd Mind: American Artists Contemplate Asia, 1860-1989 at the Guggenheim Museum, where she held a weekly performance with her Giant Beanturner. Knowles will be the 2009 Artist-in-Residence at Radcliffe Institute for Advanced Study – Harvard University.

CARLA DELFOS

Arts Education Leader and Executive

Carla Delfos is the Executive Director of the European League of Institutes of the Arts (ELIA), an international organization that represents over 350 higher arts education institutions and universities in 47 countries. Delfos, who founded ELIA in 1990, has worked as an actress, theater director, and writer, and was the director of Foundation EuroTheater from 1987-1989. She worked as a drama teacher at the Theatre School of Amsterdam, served as a board member of the school from 1982-1989, and played an integral role in establishing the merger into the Amsterdam School of the Arts. In 1996, Delfos was knighted by the French government as Chevalier dans l'ordre des Arts et des Lettres. In 2001 she was awarded an Honorary Degree of Doctor of Art by the Robert Gordon University in Aberdeen. Delfos serves on several national and international boards including the European Forum for the Arts and Heritage; the Lab For Culture; Theatre het Amsterdamse Bos; WalterMaas Huis; and Castrum Perigini. Delfos continues to teach theater on occasion.

RAY BRADBURY

Author

Ray Bradbury is one of the most beloved and prolific authors of our time. Over a period of sixty years, he has published more than 600 short stories as well as novels, screenplays, and poetry. His best known books include The Martian Chronicles, The Illustrated Man, Something Wicked This Way Comes, and his classic dystopian novel, Fahrenheit 451. Bradbury's first foray into cinema came in 1953 when he wrote the screenplay for John Huston's film of Moby Dick. Many of Bradbury's works have been adapted for the screen, beginning in 1966 when Francois Truffaut created his controversial film interpretation of Fahrenheit 451. In 1980 The Martian Chronicles became a mini-series starring Rock Hudson and Bradbury's short story A Sound of Thunder was translated to film in 2005. At nearly 90, Bradbury continues to produce. Works recently published include: From the Dust Returned, One More for the Road, Let's All Kill Constance, The Cat's Pajamas, a book of essays entitled Bradbury Speaks, and a large volume of short fiction, Bradbury Stories. In 2001 he received The National Book Award for his contribution to American literature, and in 2004 he was awarded the National Medal of Arts by President George W. Bush and the National Endowment for the Arts. In 2007, Bradbury was honored with a Pulitzer Prize Special Citation, and awarded a medal from the French Ambassador to the United States naming him a Commandeur dans l'Ordre des Arts et des Lettres. The unique vision and creative drive of Ray Bradbury led to his involvement in developing the architectural design concepts for the United States Pavilion at the New York World's Fair, Spaceship Earth at Disney's Epcot, as well as the Glendale Galleria in California. Bradbury lives in Los Angeles with his beloved cat, Halli.

THOMAS MISNER

Audio Engineer, Producer and Educator

Thomas Misner is President of the School of Audio Engineering Institute (SAE) in Dubai. In 1976, Mr. Misner established the technology college, the first practical school of its type in the world. SAE is now a successful major enterprise with 59 locations in 24 countries around the globe. In 1999 Misner was awarded the "Doctor of the University" by Middlesex University, London. Also during 1999 he acquired the renowned recording studio, Studio 301. He has been involved with the production of more than 100 record albums serving as recording engineer, musician, and producer. He has been awarded two Ampex Golden Reel Awards, eight gold, and two platinum albums.

LEE ELIOT BERK

Music Educator

Lee Eliot Berk is President Emeritus of the Berklee College of Music in Boston and a member of the college's Board of Overseers. He served as second president of the college, succeeding his father Lawrence Berk, who founded Berklee College of Music in 1945. Dr. Berk was a leader in the establishment of the Boston Arts Academy, Boston's first high school for the visual and performing arts and the Berklee City Music program, which provides year-round music education and college scholarships for underserved urban students in grades 6-12. The program received the national 2008 Coming Up Taller Award from the President's Committee on the Arts and Humanities. Dr. Berk has received numerous awards and recognitions, including the ASCAP-Deems Taylor Award for Best Book in Music for his volume Legal Protection for the Creative Musician; the American Eagle Award from the National Music Council; The President's Merit Award from The National Academy of Recording Arts and Sciences; The Humanitarian Award from the International Association for Jazz Education; and the Imperial Decoration of the Order of the Rising Sun from Japan. Dr. Berk is a graduate of Brown University and received the degree of Juris Doctor from Boston University School of Law. He is retired and resides in Santa Fe, New Mexico.

TRISHA BROWN

Dancer and Choreographer

Trisha Brown is the most widely acclaimed choreographer to emerge from the post-modern era, initially gaining public attention in the 1960s as part of the "dance revolution" at New York City's Judson Dance Theater. In 1970, Brown formed Trisha Brown Company and went on to create a body of groundbreaking work. She has collaborated with artists Robert Rauschenberg and Laurie Anderson and has made nearly one hundred dance works since 1961, including several operas. Known also as a visual artist, Brown's drawings have been exhibited in group and solo exhibitions. Brown was the first female choreographer to receive the MacArthur Foundation Fellowship. Other honors include: Brandeis University's Creative Arts Medal in Dance, two John Simon Guggenheim Fellowships, a New York State Governor's Arts Award, and the National Medal of Arts. She was named a Chevalier dans l'Ordre des Arts et des Lettres by the government of France in 1988, elevated to Officier in 2000, and to Commandeur in 2004. Brown served on the National Council on the Arts from 1994 to 1997 and is an Honorary Member of the American Academy of Arts and Letters.

2009 ALUMNI OF THE YEAR AWARDS

Each year, the college recognizes alumni who have made outstanding contributions to their fields and embody the mission of the institution. Awardees receive a uniquely crafted certificate that portrays a captured ray of light symbolizing their energy and spark of creativity.

May their accomplishments inspire you, the Class of 2009, to strive for greatness along your chosen paths.

PABLO MARTINEZ MONSIVAIS

Bachelor of Arts, Photography, 1994

Pablo Martinez Monsivais is the son of a migrant laborer and the first of his siblings to be born in the United States. He grew up in Chicago's Mexican-American community of Little Village.

After graduating with a degree in photography from Columbia, he began his career as a summer intern for the Chicago Sun-Times. At the end of the 13-week internship, and at the age of 24, the paper hired him as a staff photographer. There he worked on many local stories and covered everything from parades to politics, from food to fashion, and from fires to sports.

Since the fall of 1998, Pablo has been a staff photographer for the Associated Press' Washington Bureau, where he primarily covers the Office of The President and the Administration. In 1999, he won the Pulitzer Prize for feature photography for team coverage of the impeachment during the Clinton Administration.

Pablo has received awards from World Press Photo, The White House News Photographers Association, and the National Association of Hispanic Journalists.

PETE JANOS

Bachelor of Arts, Television, 1982

Chicago native Pete Janos is CNN's Western/Midwestern Regional Bureau Chief. He oversees the network's news coverage for nearly half the United States. He has been involved in coverage of the Gulf War, the Mississippi floods, several hurricanes including Katrina, and the demolition of Comiskey Park. He has won a Peabody award, a DuPont Award, an ACE Award, and the Thaine Lyman Columbia College Scholarship Award.

While finishing his senior year at Columbia, Janos got his first television job creating shows for a local cable company. He then landed the Producer/Editor job at CNN Chicago where he produced and directed several groundbreaking live reports for the network. His team broadcast the first ever live report from atop Mount Rushmore in South Dakota, as well as the first report under water in Pearl Harbor at the wreckage of the USS Utah.

In 1994, CNN asked Janos to executive produce the network's coverage of the O.J. Simpson murder trial from Los Angeles. A year later, when the trial concluded, Janos was promoted to CNN's Los Angeles Deputy Bureau Chief. In 2003, Janos became the Bureau Chief where he now manages news coverage in 22 states.

Pete lives in Los Angeles with his wife and two children. He is a member of the Radio Television News Directors Association and is proud to have placed several dozen Columbia students into CNN internship programs in Atlanta, Chicago, and Los Angeles.

SHARON MESMER

Bachelor of Arts, English, 1983

Sharon Mesmer is the recipient of a 2008 Fulbright Senior Specialist grant, two New York Foundation for the Arts fellowships (1999, 2007), and the co-recipient of a 2009 Jerome Foundation grant.

She received the 1990 MacArthur Scholarship, given through Brooklyn College's MFA program, by nomination of Allen Ginsberg. Her three poetry collections are The Virgin Formica (Hanging Loose, 2008), Annoying Diabetic Bitch (Combo Books, 2008), and Half Angel, Half Lunch (Hard Press, 1998). Her fiction collections include Ma Vie à Yonago (Hachette Littératures, 2005, in French) and In Ordinary Time and The Empty Quarter (Hanging Loose 2005 and 2000). In January 2009 Mesmer was featured with other Flarf Collective poets on National Public Radio's "Studio 360 with Kurt Andersen." From 2003-2006 her column, "Seasonal Affect," appeared in the French magazine Purple. In 1998, "Virgo Mater Creatrix," her libretto in Latin (composed for Prix de Rome-winning composer Barbara Kolb), premiered at the International Festival of Women Composers at Indiana University of Pennsylvania.

She currently teaches graduate poetry seminars, as well as undergraduate literature courses and fiction workshops, at the New School in Manhattan. Before moving to New York in 1988, Mesmer was active in the Chicago poetry scene, co-founding two publications, B City and letter eX. She appeared in the 1984 documentary "The New Alchemy," produced by Deborah Pintonelli with support from Columbia's Albert Weisman Scholarship. She served as poetry co-editor for Hair Trigger in 1981 and graduated with honors in 1983. Mesmer was born and raised in Back-of-the-Yards.

Columbia College Chicago would like to extend most sincere thanks to the faculty, staff, students, alumni, and friends of the College whose hard work and talent have made the 2009 Commencement possible.

Student Affairs and its Office of College-wide Events would also like to extend heartfelt thanks to the Offices of the President, Institutional Advancement, Campus Environment, Business Affairs, Academic Affairs, and the Provost and the Deans of the Schools of Fine and Performing Arts, Liberal Arts and Sciences, and Media Arts as well as their talented faculty and staff for their special support of Manifest 2009.

Commencement is produced by the Division of Student Affairs (Mark E. Kelly, Vice President; Jill Summers, Director of College-wide Events; and Marvin Cohen, Registrar) in cooperation with the staff of the Office of the President, commencement volunteer staff, and the entire Columbia community. Special thanks to Gigi Posejpal, Director of International Student Affairs and Anne E. Foley, Vice President, Administration Research, and Planning for calling the graduates' names. Arrangements for the 2009 Honorees provided by the Office of Institutional Advancement (Eric Winston, Vice President; Diana Cazares, Director of Event Operations; Helen Giagkou, Events Operations Coordinator; Joshua Culley-Foster, National Director of Alumni Relations; and Erica Halleran, Even Operations Administrator.)
