Yari,
You are the most amazing woman I have ever known. You have overcome more obstacles than any other person’s life can throw at them. No one knows how you deal with all of the trials of life when the cameras are off. I however, am privy to everything. There have been times of doubt, times of weeping and times of regret. In the end, the only thing that matters is that you have overcome all of them.
Naysayers have been your strength! Envious onlookers have been your motivation. And after all commentators have ceased speaking, there you stand ... Victorious and alone! You have defied all odds and you are the exact person the world needs right now! I am so proud of you and I love you beyond death! May your start shine forever because my love for you will never die! Congratulations, and I am so proud of you!

Our beloved daughter in Christ Jesus; “Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that works in us” (Ephesians 3:20).

Mom and I cannot begin to express how much we love you, how elated we are, in what you have accomplished thus far, but guess what ... God is not finished with you yet.

The reasons we love you are so numerous, we would never be able to express them all, so we simply say ... We love you “Pooh,” as we are called to love you in Christ Jesus. You have been exceedingly blessed to reach a major milestone in life that has been ordained by God himself. As you continue this wonderful journey, always keep this scripture in remembrance: “I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me” (Phil. 4):
