Kendall Vivian Browne

Dear Kendall,
We provided the opportunity to learn, you put in the hard work and dedication. You have proven to yourself that when you take the difficult path you collect the greatest experiences.

Now you have strength and ability to provide your own opportunities. Remember,
"The doors will be opened to those who are bold enough to knock." This is your time, you determine what to do and what you will become.
As your father says, "What the mind can conceive and believe it can achieve." Go for it, Ken!

Love,
Your biggest fans
Mom, Dad and Sis

Kahlil Newell Garner

The ancient Chinese philosopher Lao Tzu once said, "The journey of a thousand miles begins with a single step."

Kahlil, your journey to Columbia College Chicago from York College in Jamaica, Queens has been just shy of a thousands miles. There were times along the way that it seemed impossible to continue. The journey appeared too difficult, and the road felt a bit too treacherous. But like all true seekers of knowledge, you triumphantly trudged onward. Through faith, with intellect, strength and passion, you overcame the challenges. You persevered and achieved success. The unmistakable truth is that only you can truly appreciate the many twists and turns of your remarkable accomplishments.

Kahlil, your graduation is not an end. It is your new beginning. It is the culmination of your determination and unwavering efforts. It is the recognition that you have earned and deserve. It is a catalyst for continuing to live your dreams and become your reality. Kahlil, you have made us so very proud, and we truly share the joy of your success. Kahlil, congratulations on a job well done!

With all our love,
Dad, Mom and Shawn
