Columbia College Chicago

Founded in 1890 as a college of elocution, the mission of Columbia College has been to educate students who will communicate creatively and shape the public's perceptions of issues and events.

Columbia College Chicago has since grown into the largest arts and media college in the nation, with approximately 10,000 current undergraduate and graduate students, as well as more than 100,000 alumni, making our “network” among the largest of any arts and media college in the world.

The Loop

Located in the Columbia Arts District in the heart of Chicago’s South Loop, Columbia College is just steps away from Chicago's museum campus and a short bus or train ride from hundreds of theatre and music venues, independent film festivals, and galleries. Home to more than 16,000 residents and over 3,000 businesses, the South Loop is one of the fastest growing areas in downtown Chicago.

ECHO Magazine

Adhering to only the highest standards, ECHO consistently remains a nationally top-rated college magazine, and has won numerous awards from prestigious organizations such as the Columbia Scholastic Press Association (Columbia University in New York), Association for Education in Journalism and Mass Communication (AEJMC) and the Associated Collegiate Press.

Production
Widely distributed once a year, ECHO is created by a select group comprising upper-level journalism majors operating alongside industry professionals, all working to ensure the content and design continues to maintain its appeal with ECHO’s estimated 60,000 readers.

Circulation
ECHO Magazine has an average circulation of 30,000. Offered free of charge, ECHO is obtainable not only through Columbia’s numerous downtown campus locations, but also at coffee shops, bookstores, restaurants, and cafes all throughout Chicago’s growing South Loop area.

ECHO reaches not only the local residential and Columbia College populations, but also those of three other downtown Chicago universities. With a recent readership survey estimating 2.2 readers per copy, ECHO delivers strong pass-along response and multiple exposures per individual.

Terms & Conditions

The office of Student Publications and Media is the umbrella group name for marketing/advertising sales in print and online versions of The Columbia Chronicle, Tally-ho, R_WURD and ECHO magazine.

The advertiser and/or advertising agency agrees to defend the Office of Student Publications and Media against any and all liabilities of expense, arising from claims of liberal, unfair compensation, unfair trade practice, and infringement of trademarks, trade names or patents, violations of right privacy.

The Office of Student Publications and Media at Columbia College Chicago reserves the right to insert the word “advertisement” above and/or below any copy.

The Office of Student Publications and Media at Columbia College Chicago reserves the right to change its advertising rates and conditions set forth on its rate card at any time and for any reason without prior notice.

The Office of Student Publications and Media at Columbia College Chicago shall not be liable for slight changes or typographical errors that do not decrease the value of an advertisement, nor will the Office of Student Publications and Media be liable for any other errors appearing in the advertisement unless the corrected copy is received before the copy deadline with corrections plainly noted thereon. Liability, if there is any, is limited to the cost of the ad in question. No cash refunds will be made.

Credit is available to qualified accounts under credit terms. All bills must be paid within 30 days of billing. All other copy must be accompanied by payment. Pre-payment is required for all first-time advertisers. A service charge of 10% will be applied every 30 days on all past due accounts. Past due accounts will receive a letter from the Office of Student Publications and Media concerning their status. If no action is taken to correct this outstanding balance, action will ensue in small claims court. The client will be responsible for all court costs in addition to the amount outstanding.

Advertisers and Agencies forwarding orders to the Office of Student Publications and Media at Columbia College Chicago that contain incorrect rates or conditions are hereby advised that the advertising called for will be inserted and charged at the regular rate scheduled, and conditions in force at the time published will apply.

Advertising canceled after the deadline for publication is subject to a full charge. Canceled ads will also be subject to a $50 service charge to cover handling and production costs.

The Office of Student Publications and Media at Columbia College Chicago is not responsible for any specific ad placement in any specific publication or website. Ads may be moved or removed at the discretion of the editors.

Advertisers will be charged an additional $25 for any check returned by the bank.

The Office of Student Publications and Media accepts Visa, MasterCard, American Express, Discover, personal checks, money orders, cash, and certified checks.

All delinquent accounts will be referred to college legal counsel and collection representatives.

Did you know?

Frequency with advertisements:
• Builds awareness for the brand
• Generates Brand–recognition
• Keeps brands on top of the consumer’s mind
• Increases the odds that the advertisement message will penetrate

Tips to Improve your advertisements:
• Include the benefits of your product or services in the Ad.
• Time your advertisements appropriately.
• Have an attention grabber (colors, fonts, headlines, pictures).
• Correlate your frequency based on your budget.

All advertising submitted is subject to the approval of the editor-in-chief, executive editor, managing editor, and advertising manager. These officers reserve the right to refuse any advertising content that does not meet Student Publications and Media standards.
